1 Is mobile repair right for you?

Mobile mechanics fix cars at customers' homes and workplaces. It suits experienced technicians who want lower overhead than a shop.

2 Form the business and register for sales tax

1. Choose a structure. LLCs and corporations register with DLCP's Corporations Division.
2. Register with the Office of Tax and Revenue to collect DC sales tax and get a Clean Hands certification. Repair services are taxable, labor included.
3. Check your city or county for local licenses and zoning.

3 DLCP auto repair license

Repair, servicing, painting, cleaning and similar vehicle work needs a Consumer Goods (Auto Repair) basic business license from DLCP, applied for online at BOSS. You need a certificate of occupancy, tax registration and Clean Hands certification, written estimates, a final bill and a surety bond for the two-year license: $2,000 with five or fewer employees, $5,000 with more.

4 Sales tax on repairs

DC treats charges for repairing property or installing replacement parts as retail sales, whether or not parts are transferred. Collect DC sales tax on both parts and labor.

5 A/C work

Servicing vehicle air conditioning for pay requires EPA Section 609 certification.

6 Your first steps

1. Register the business and taxes; get Clean Hands.
2. Ask DLCP how the auto repair license applies to mobile work.
3. Get EPA 609 for A/C work.
4. List your business on Nearby Car Care
