START A CAREER - FLORIDA

How to become a mobile mechanic in Florida

What mobile mechanics do, the skills and credentials that matter in Florida, and how to find mobile mechanic jobs.

Sources verified 2026-11-21 - Updated 2026-11-21

1 What mobile mechanics do

Mobile mechanics repair cars where customers are, with the tools they carry.

2 Skills and training

Most mobile mechanics have shop experience first. You need your own tools and a scanner, a valid driver license and good customer communication. Paid A/C work needs EPA Section 609 certification.

3 Licensing

If you repair vehicles for pay on your own, including mobile repair, you must register with FDACS. Paid A/C work also needs EPA Section 609 certification.

4 Find jobs on NCC

Browse open jobs below or on NCC Jobs.

Requirements at a glance

FDACS repair registration if you work for yourself

Required in some cases - State - Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

If you repair vehicles for pay on your own, including mobile repair, you must register with FDACS.

Fees: Per location per year: 1 to 5 repair employees $50; 6 to 10 $150; 11 or more $300 (waivers for veterans and some military families)

Official agencies and links

Motor Vehicle Repair

Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

https://www.fdacs.gov/consumer-resources/consumer-rights-and-responsibilities/motor-vehicle-repair

Frequently asked questions

Do mobile mechanics need a license in Florida?

If you work for yourself, register with FDACS.

This guide is general information, not legal advice. Rules change and can depend on your city or county, so confirm with the official agencies linked below before you apply.